DRURY ARMS OF THE WHEN WAGES BE CUT

Premier-Elect Sees Cut in Price of Wheat and Lowering of Pay Soon

Predicts Period of Financial Deflation and Business Depression

BARRIE, Nov. 2.—E. C. Drury, Premier-elect of Ontario, made his first public appearance since his appointment to office when at the Opera House here to-night he delivered an address in support of the Victory Loan. His remarks, which extended over a period of fifteen minutes only, were confined mainly to the loan campaign, an reference to any particular being made to the political situation or to the policy which will be pursued by his party during the coming session of the Legislature. When he appeared on the platform after the meeting commenced, he having just arrived on the eight o'clock train from Toronto, he was given a magnificent reception by the large audience which filled the auditorium, and when he rose to speak to great was the ovation which he received that it was several moments before he was able to commence his address. When he did start to speak he at once launched himself into a full-scale patriotic side of the case, and confining himself to the economic phase, urging his audience to buy bonds as a means of warding off the period of financial deflation and business depression which he depicted, through no fault of any Government, the country is about to go through. In this connection he prophesied not only a depreciation in the value of money, but as a farmer and leader of farmers' party a fall in the price of wheat and a lowering of the standard of wages.

At the conclusion of the meeting a vote of confidence in him as new leader of the Government was unanimously passed, the audience showing its approval by prolonged cheering followed by the singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Repeating Mr. Drury expressed his appreciation of the warmth of the greeting, and promised to do his best to serve the province, irrespective of party.

INVEST IN BONDS.

Introduced as "Ontario's new Premier, Hon. Mr. Ernest Drury," the Hon. Mr. Drury appealed for the indulgence of his audience, for being incapable at the end of a hard day's work of making a long address to a patriotic standpoint, he said. "Your patriotism, I know is there. I want you to realize that the only thing we need to fear is an economic condition where it takes too large a share of our products to pay our foreign interest. There is nothing to fear about the amount of money we owe ourselves at home. The thing we have to fear is our foreign borrowing and the interest on these borrowings, that it does so great a great that it requires too large a proportion of our labor to pay our interest on them."

CANADA'S CREDIT SOUND.
"Our foreign indebtedness is not so great that it in any way affects the stability of Canada. Canada, with the immense natural resources which she has, and her industries, and I am happy to say, with a sober people, because that will help her to do nothing to fear. (Applause.) Work on our resources will pull us through. We could conceivably raise a foreign loan in the United States, but what happens. We are committed to pay interest on that country and our credit is affected and the value of the Canadian dollar goes down. But if we raise it at home the money does not come out of the business already invested. We do not expect men to take money out of their farms or their factories to invest in Victory bonds."

"They could not do it and it would not be sound business. To raise our Victory Loan at home the money comes out of the current spendings of the citizens, who instead of spending are entreating and saving. That is not the least of the great considerations in raising our loan at home, that will help our people to tide themselves over the stringent times which we believe are to come. All that we need is a steady stream of money to our best customer, in just such reduction of our foreign indebtedness as to increase our chances of going through the stages of high prices without effect. Canada is affected badly, it is the foreign indebtedness we owe that will make times hard. In raising our loan at home we are just reducing our chances of experiencing hard times."

GOOD BUSINESS.
"The safest investment that can be made by any Canadian at present time is loaning that money to the nation. It is good business for the individual. It assists in the credit of the nation, and it provides work for the nation. It is the nature of an insurance policy of spreading losses over a large number of people until the loss is negligible. It is an investment not backed by any single industry or the nation."

One per cent. of the industries could fall, ten per cent. of the industries may fall and still the investment would be gilt edged. The safest investment you could possibly make is in Victory Bonds, and it is the biggest thing you could possibly do for your country at the present time. A dollar invested by you in Victory Bonds to-day will be worth two, possibly three in a few years. There is no doubt in the world we are on the edge of a time of depression, and for this depression no Government will be responsible. I speak feelingly because you know the position I am in at the present moment and you know the tendency to blame here and there on the Government. The time will come not very far off when wages will have dropped and the value of a bushel of wheat will have dropped to one half the value it is now. That day your bond will have twice the present value it is now. It will be worth while to invest in your own $100 worth of Victory Bonds."

"There is one feature about this issue of Victory Bonds, which commends itself most highly to me, and that is that they are taxable. Every bond we issued should have been taxable because it is to be feared that former issues of non-taxable bonds are drifting into the hands of men with big incomes who wish to avoid taxation. It was not needed this non-taxability feature because the small consumer, the man who has his savings, did not need a tax rebate to get him to invest. I give you my sincere conviction that the best thing we can do at present for ourselves and for our country is to use our money in this nation it is urgently needed. The Government must have it. (Prolonged applause.)"

DEBATE UPON GRAND TRUNK ENDS QUICKLY

Division On Third Reading
Was to Take Place
To-day.

AN AMENDMENT

Will Be Introduced When
Fielding's is to Be Voted Down.

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—The debate upon the Grand Trunk deal suddenly collapsed in the House of Commons shortly after 11 o'clock to-night, owing partly to a scarcity of speakers, but partly to an arrangement made by Sir George Foster, the acting Premier, that the division upon the third reading will take place to-morrow. When the Fielding amendment favoring the appointment of a commission to secure information about the Grand Trunk is voted down, another amendment will be introduced, but all of them, it is believed, will cover the same ground as the amendment moved when the bill was in committee. Mr. J. J. Dennis, of St. John's, wants to submit all five stocks of the railway to arbitration, and will so move "to be there or thereabouts" amendments from the Opposition, but the third reading of the bill is expected before the dinner recess to-morrow. The Senate met this morning in response to the hour of the day, and with the Grand Trunk bill, which the Government had planned to send up from the Commons Friday night. The Senators arrived, but found there would be nothing for them to do until Tuesday night or Wednesday, and promptly adjourned.

It is doubtful now if Parliament will get through in time for prorogation on Friday. The most optimistic view is that the Government cannot be completed until the middle of next week, while others believe that the members will be there for still another fortnight.

MR. COPE BEGINS.

The debate on the Fielding amendment to the third reading motion respecting the Grand Trunk Bill was opened to-night by Mr. A. H. Cope of Westmoreland N. B. who opposed the bill. He said the Government had not given the House sufficient information that the effect of the acquisition of the Grand Trunk would be to enhance the value of the stock and cost the Canadian people unnecessary millions of dollars. He said the Government would not be in the interests of the people that financial conditions at present did not justify the Government in acquiring the railway, and that the present emergency would not be called upon to relieve the Grand Trunk of its obligations in respect of the G. T. P. He said the Government would be developed at the expense of the people of St. John and Halifax, and that the Government would be shipping away a foreign port in winter, which would be a great loss to the country. He said the Government had acquired the G. T. P. He challenged the Government to let the people know the effect of the acquisition. C. P. R. SHOULD INTERFERE.
The bill found an enthusiastic supporter in the person of Mr. V. P. Maclean, of South York, who said that twenty years ago he stood up in the House and said that the Government when public ownership had mighty few friends in Canada. The speeches

Royal Commission Made This Admission.

London, Nov. 3.—Corporal Demole, an Australian, submitted plans for a tank in 1912 which were essentially similar to those used in the construction of tanks, and even better. This admission was made to-day by the Crown Counsel at a resumption of the of the day and of the war was that this was the age of democracy, and that democracy was ready to say that there was no better way to handle the transportation question of the country than by State ownership. The C. P. R. was afraid of competition from the public. Mr. Frank Cahill, of Montreal, previously opposed the transaction, again taking the position he took last week when the bill was in committee. The water powers, telegraphs and other public utilities must be nationalized. The C. P. R. must not interfere with the determination of the people to own their own railway. "GET C. P. R. SOME DAY."

Would you nationalize the C. P. R.?" asked Mr. A. R. McMaster, of Brom.

WOMEN DID WELL In Municipal Council Elections in Britain.

London, Nov. 3.—The Laborites have greatly strengthened their position in the municipal councils, according to the results announced to-day, although insufficient returns of the recent elections are available to permit of a comparison of parties. Apparently throughout the country the women candidates also have had a remarkable success and have obtained much larger representation on the councils than ever before. These results, however, will hardly afford a criterion for judging the probable outcome of the political elections because of the apathy shown by voters. Only a small percentage of those entitled to vote have done so, and of all the parties the Laborites have been the most active.

From Purely a Business Standpoint There is No Other Security Which Equals VICTORY BONDS

Why Lose 2½ % Interest on Your Savings?

It is true the Canadian Banks allow a reasonable rate of interest (3½%) on Savings Bank Accounts, yet Canada having issued her bonds in competition with the money markets of the continent, pays 5½% and thereby secures for every buyer of Victory Loan, an investment which will always sell for its par value, and undoubtedly increase in value.

Why Have Your Money Tied Up in Mortgages?

As a rule, mortgages are a fairly safe investment—yet they are rarely certain. Death, fire, dishonesty, etc., are the chances you take in buying a mortgage and once you pass your money over, you can no longer control the fate of your well-earned savings. Mortgages are not listed on the Stock Exchange, hence money so invested is practically inaccessible for business opportunities or emergencies.

Why Be Subject to Worry or Inconvenience in Connection With Interest Payments Due You?

Crop failures, business depression, etc., have their effect on the payment of interest on mortgages, stocks, etc., but such a thing cannot happen to the interest on Canada's Victory Bonds. The interest on Canada's Loan has first right to the revenue of the country. Twice a year you merely clip the coupon from your Bond and any Bank will pay it without any deduction.

Why Risk Loss and Miss Business Opportunities?

Victory Bonds are naturally the best security you can give your Banker should you require a temporary loan. Any Bank in Canada will advance you cash on your Victory Bonds without fuss or delay, whenever you need it.

Why Place Your Money in Investments That Do Not Increase in Value?

One of the great advantages of Victory Bonds is their natural increase in value. For instance, Bonds sold for $100 in 1917 and later on for $107¼—1918 Bonds reached $106—the present issue is bound to do the same.
